SHORT CUTS PAUL KALINA

Downloadable shorts

Film website Nice Shorts has partnered with Ninemsn to make short films available for free download. There's a broad range of films on the site – mainly from Australia, with a smattering of international shorts from the US to the Philippines – with five new films added each month. There's no licensing fee for filmmakers who submit their films, just the promise of exposure. Go to: ninemsn.com.au/niceshorts. The new season of Project Greenlight has also done a deal with Ninemsn. Episodes of the television series will be available on the site after screening on Movie Extra. Sixteen feature screenplays have been selected as the current round of Project Greenlight gets down to business. The shortlisted entries can be found at: projectgreenlight.ninemsn.com.au.
